Here are the Some questions which you can answer by writing some SQL queries.

Instructions

The Questions are not too elaborated so there can be some ambiguity in that case you can add a comment explaining your thought process and some of them can be followed easily if you have gained a good domain knowledge.
Note: Some questions could have repeated or asked in a different way.

1. Find out how much donors spent on bonds.
2. Find out total funds politicians got.
3. Find out the total amount of unaccounted money received by parties (bonds without donors).
4. Find year-wise how much money is spent on bonds.
5. In which month was the most amount spent on bonds?
6. Find out which company bought the highest number of bonds.
7. Find out which company spent the most on electoral bonds.
8. List companies which paid the least to political parties.
9. Which political party received the highest cash?
10. Which political party received the highest number of electoral bonds?
11. Which political party received the least cash?
12. Which political party received the least number of electoral bonds?
13. Find the 2nd highest donor in terms of the amount paid.
14. Find the party which received the second-highest donations.
15. Find the party which received the second-highest number of bonds.
16. In which city were the most number of bonds purchased?
17. In which city was the highest amount spent on electoral bonds?
18. In which city were the least number of bonds purchased?
19. In which city were the most number of bonds encashed?
20. In which city were the least number of bonds encashed?
21. List the branches where no electoral bonds were bought; if none, mention it as null.
22. Break down how much money is spent on electoral bonds for each year.
23. Break down how much money is spent on electoral bonds for each year and provide the year and the amount. Provide values for the highest and least year and amount.
24. Find out how many donors bought the bonds but did not donate to any political party.
25. Find out the money that could have gone to the PM Office.
26. Find out how many bonds don’t have donors associated with them.
27. Find the employee ID who issued the highest number of bonds.

28. Find the employee ID who issued the bonds for the highest amount.
29. Find the employee ID who issued the least number of bonds.
30. Find the employee ID who issued the bonds for the least amount.
31. Find the employee ID who assisted in redeeming or encashing bonds in the highest number.
32. Find the employee ID who assisted in redeeming or encashing bonds for the highest amount.
33. Find the employee ID who assisted in redeeming or encashing bonds in the least number.
34. Find the employee ID who assisted in redeeming or encashing bonds for the least amount.

Some more Questions you can try answering Once you are done with above questions.

1. Tell me total how many bonds are created?
2. Find the count of Unique Denominations provided by SBI?
3. List all the unique denominations that are available?
4. Total money received by the bank for selling bonds
5. Find the count of bonds for each denominations that are created.
6. Find the count and Amount or Valuation of electoral bonds for each denominations.
7. Number of unique bank branches where we can buy electoral bond?
8. How many companies bought electoral bonds?
9. How many companies made political donations?
10. How many number of parties received donations?
11. List all the political parties that received donations?
12. What is the average amount that each political party received?
13. What is the average bond value produced by bank?
14. List the political parties which have enchased bonds in different cities?
15. List the political parties which have enchased bonds in different cities and list the cities in which the bonds have enchased as well?